

The Digital Classroom: Blogging, Podcasting, Wiki-ing and Other Fun and Exciting Tools on the Internet
(Sloan Course: 15 hours)

Policies

1. All assignments must be submitted by 11:59:59 p.m. of the due date. Late assignments should be posted in the late assignment thread and must be submitted within one week of the due date. ALL late assignments will lose credit and will result in the loss of seat time equivalence.
2. All participants must adhere to the rules of netiquette (<http://onlinenetiquette.com/>)
3. All participants must log on at least three days each week.
4. All students must fully participate through the entire course. If you plan on being on vacation you should sign up at a time when you can devote the full time.
5. Any documents attached must be created in Microsoft Word unless otherwise noted by the facilitator.
6. Responses online are your way of demonstrating participation. Responses should be fully thought out and developed in order to be fully counted.
7. Technical problems should be addressed immediately (Call 631-348-3231 or email rtirotta@nyit.edu)

Recommendation for in-service credit

- 1) Completion of the course means that all assignments are completed at least a complete level.
- 2) Participation in class discussions, completing required readings and posting completed assignments is essential to success in the course.
- 3) Students who plagiarize will not be recommended for in-service credit.
