

Reading Strategies in the Content Areas
Instructor: Christine Metrisko
cmetrisko@greenburgh7.net
Class Policies

Participation: Students are required to log in to the course 3 times per week and have computer access for the duration of the course. Students should have Microsoft Word, an email account and a secure internet connection.

Assignments: There will be at least one assignment per week. For each assignment, students are required to post at least one comment to a classmate's work. Comments must be constructive and offer positive feedback. For group work, every member of each group must do his or her equal share of the group assignment. The quality of group assignments will be held to the same standards as individual assignments. It should be brought to the instructor's attention if groups are experiencing difficulties with a particular member.

Lateness: Assignments are due by 11:59 pm on the due date. Anything submitted after that time must be posted in the Late Box. Students will receive one "courtesy lateness" for the duration of the course. Anything beyond that will impact the recommendation for credit. Please refer to the grading policy.

Academic Honesty: Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will result in not receiving course credit. Sources should be cited.

Online Conduct: Participants are expected to conduct themselves in a professional, positive and supportive manner. Please refer to www.netiquette.com.

Recommendation for in-service credit: Students are required to meet all of the criteria outlined in the syllabus for full in-service credit.

Other Concerns: For questions, comments, concerns please post in the "Other Box." I will get back to you in a timely manner. Remember that there is no such thing as a stupid question!