

Using Digital Resources to Enhance Reading Comprehension
Instructor: Denise Lewis

Course Policies

Attendance:

Students must log into the class a minimum of three days per week. All student activity is monitored. Your participation throughout the entire course is expected.

Assignments:

All assignments must be posted prior to midnight on the date they are due. Assignments will be graded according to the grading policy that will be posted. Assignments must reflect seat time allocated for the assignment. All work must be original or cited properly. Late assignments will lose credit and will result in the loss of seat time to be used in determining in-service credit.

Participation: Students must regularly respond to the posts of their peers. Responses should be thoughtful and constructive. Meaningful collaboration in group assignments is required.

Proper Web-User Etiquette: Student online presence must be professional. A review of <http://onlinenetiquette.com> will illustrate this criterion. Assignments must reflect good grammar and spelling.

Technical Issues: Students should contact the instructor immediately in the event of any technical problems that occur during the course of this class.

In-Service Credit: Recommendations for in-service credit will be determined based upon satisfactory completion of all course requirements. Students would do not submit their original work or cited work will no be recommended for in-service credit.
