

Understanding Prejudice, Stereotyping, and Discrimination in the Classroom

COURSE POLICIES

- Students are required to log-in to at least 3 days per week.
- Technical problems should be addressed immediately (call 1-800-462-9041, Monday to Friday, 9-5).
- All assignments are due by 11:59:59 p.m. on the date they due. Students will be required to post all late assignments in the item labeled "Late Assignments." Late assignments will incur a loss of points. Please note: assignments may only be turned in up to 24 hours late.
- Students are expected to use proper netiquette at all times. For a complete review, please visit www.onlinenetiquette.com.
- Any instances of plagiarism will result in removal from the course with no in-service credit. If you are unsure as to what constitutes plagiarism, please speak to the instructor.
- Participation in class discussions is required for success in this course. However, while constructive feedback is encouraged, personal attacks at any time will not be tolerated. Any student posting such remarks may be removed from the course at the discretion of the instructor.
- Students are encouraged to carefully read over the course syllabus, assignments, and due dates. Any student who feels that s/he may have difficulty meeting the requirements is advised to drop the course.
- Students must indicate that they have read, understand, and agree with the above policies.

RECOMMENDATION FOR INSERVICE CREDIT

- Actively participate in all class discussions using proper netiquette.
- Complete all assignments at least at a satisfactory level.
- Use proper citation of all outside sources.
- Comply with all of the aforementioned course policies.
